

GORMAN SAYS HE WARNED COWART TO KEEP RECORDS

Montgomery, Ala., June 23.—J. T. Gorman, State Examiner of Public Accounts, testified before the Merritt Investigation Committee Tuesday morning that he, during an examination of the Immigration Department, warned Lee Cowart, Immigration Commissioner, that he would get into serious trouble if he did not keep a record of receipts and expenditures. This evidence followed Mr. Gorman's statement that he found no books or accounts when he made the examination for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1914, although he reported to Governor O'Neal that after an examination of books, accounts and vouchers of the Department that he had found them to be correct. Mr. Gorman said the statement relative to the examination "of books, accounts and vouchers" was a printed form, and did not refer to the facts of his examination.

Mrs. Moselle H. Gwynn, former secretary of the department testified that she does not know of any person ever having come to Alabama through the efforts of the Immigration Department, though former Commissioner Cowart told her many times of the progress of the department's work.

Over her protest, Mrs. Gwynn stated that she has an impression that the business of the office was not properly conducted. She told the committee that she did not think it right for the committee to force her to give her own opinion.

Mrs. Gwynn was questioned about a stamp bill contracted at Chicago and charged to her. She said she did not use the stamps and that they should never have been charged to her.

Mrs. Gwynn said she supposed Mr. Cowart took all correspondence of the department to Birmingham when the office was abolished and she went to the office and found it had been removed. She said Mr. Cowart shipped to Birmingham two large dry goods boxes filled with various matters obtained from the department.

SLATON SAYS ACT APPROVED BY THE BEST FOLKS

Atlanta, Ga., June 23.—State troops tonight continued to guard the suburban home of Governor Slaton, but all was quiet both there and in the city after the demonstrations of yesterday and last night by people most bitterly opposed to the commutation of Leo M. Frank's death sentence. State and city officials said they anticipated no further trouble but as a precautionary measure additional militiamen were held under arms at the 5th regiment armory and extra policemen were available.

Governor Slaton spent several hours at his office in the Capitol today attending to official business. A policeman accompanied him to and from his home in an automobile. There was no demonstration. The Governor said tonight that the guard of soldiers was continued at his estate to prevent any possible attempts at damage to the property. He could not say when the troops would be removed.

"The crowd which visited my home last night was not composed of the best people of Atlanta," declared the Governor. "Today I have received telegrams from hundreds of people in Georgia and throughout the country, congratulating me upon my action in this case."

Thirty-four persons arrested yesterday and last night in connection with the demonstrations were given hearings in the police court late today. They were charged with failure to "move on." Nominal fines were imposed in eleven of the cases, eight were dismissed because of the inability of the officers to identify the accused, and the other cases were continued. The heaviest fine—$15.75—was imposed on J. A. Bozeman, a police officer, who was alleged to have stated that he would lead a crowd to the Governor's home.

ROOSEVELT TO VISIT THE BIG CALIFORNIA FAIRS

San Diego, June 23.—Although several important events are scheduled for the San Diego Exposition between now and the middle of July arrangements are already being made for reception to Col. Roosevelt, who has just announced his plan of visiting both California fairs next month. He has not set the exact days for his stay in San Diego, but the Exposition and the military authorities are to work on a parade which will be no less impressive than that of the Fourth of July three-day celebration.

It is now reasonably certain that President Wilson will be unable to make his proposed trip to the coast; also the full Atlantic fleet cannot make its tour through the canal. The Ohio, Missouri and Wisconsin, however, are already under way with their load of Annapolis midshipmen, due for the opening of the Independence Day festivals.

Distinguished guests of the last week included the appropriation committee of congress, Surgeon General Blue whose work in sanitation has attracted world wide attention, and the Maharajah Karamjit of Kapurthala, who with an imposing retinue, including the latest of his six wives, devoted three days to the Exposition. The Indian potentate was escorted across the Puente Cabrillo by the entire troupe of Spanish singers and dancers, but left San Diego without acquiring a seventh consort.

WHERE IT RAINED.

Rural Carrier E. N. Bruce, on route 1, says the rain last night was preny general all over his route; some places having a fine season.

He states that crops on his route are fine, and corn is extra good. About all the damaged noticed on his route was some trees blown down.

Mr. Bruce says that the farmers on his route have the best crops they have had in years.

DR. FRAZIER GETS AN IMPORTANT APPOINTMENT

The Rev. J. S. Frazier, D. D. presiding elder of the Mobile District, M. E. Church, South, has been elected by the trustees as commissioner of the Emory University of the Methodist Church, South, located at Atlanta.

His work will carry him into the field covered by the great school, all of the time, and will embrace all the interests of the institution, in its various branches.

The development of this university is one of the marvels of modern education. Thirteen months ago this work was inaugurated by the general conference in session at Oklahoma City, when the Church lost ownership of the Vanderbilt University. Not a dollar was in sight; not a foot of land or building owned. Asa Candler of Atlanta made the movement possible by a handsome gift of one million dollars, the largest single gift to christian education ever made by a southern man. Other gifts came thick and fast. Atlanta gave a considerable sum, and Mr. Candler added to his large money gift, seventy-five acres of land on which to locate the school which is well located in the city of Atlanta, and easily worth $75,000. The cash contributions to date amount to nearly two million dollars.

The Atlanta Medical College has been given in fee simple to the university, also Emory College at Oxford, Ga., this having been decided to the University, as a literary department. A department of law has been established which will open this fall.

The session of 1915-16 will begin with three departments of the university in operation—the School of Liberal Arts, at Oxford, the School of Theology, and the School of Medicine.

The enrollment for the school of Theology for the next session already guarantees a larger attendance than last year. For the School of Liberal Arts and the School of Medicine, with their past record of usefulness, the prospects are encouraging.

Dr. Frazier has special qualifications for this special work and his friends predict for him large success in his new field of endeavor. Every interest of the University will be guarded and furthered by his labors.

ELECTION CONSPIRACY CHARGED TO OVER ONE HUNDRED

Thomas Taggart Is Among Those Indicted in Indiana.

Indianapolis, June 23.—An indictment charging election conspiracy was returned by the county grand jury here today against more than 100 persons, including several high in party councils.

The charges are based on the election of November 3, 1914, the registration of last September and October, and the primary of May 5, 1914.

Thomas Taggart, Democratic National Committeeman for Indiana; Mayor Joseph E. Bell, Chief of Police, Samuel Perrott, Fred Barrett, City Attorney and Democratic Chairman; Robert Metzger, former Chief of Police and Republican member of the Board of Safety, and Frank P. Baker, former County Prosecutor, are among those indicted.

In all, 128 were indicted. Among them were many members of Mayor Bell's official family, former city officials, policemen, ward leaders and primary and election officials. The list includes Herman Adam, City Sealer of Weights and Measures; Denis Bush, Street Commissioner; Edward Lyons, Democratic candidate for County Treasurer; Dr. John W. Sloan, Republican and former Superintendent of the City Hospital; Donn M. Roberts, former Mayor of Terre Haute, convicted in the Terre Haute election frauds, tried in Federal Court recently; Charles Covel, former Mayor Bell's Secretary; Jacob Hilkens, City Building Inspector; Oscar Merrill, Police Lieutenant; Patrick J. Roche and Michael Glenn, City Detectives.

Roberts' connection with Indianapolis politics was touched upon during the trial in the Federal Court. Several witnesses testified that he had sent representatives to Indianapolis from Terre Haute as repeating voters. All the defendants, Democrats, Republicans and Progressives, are named in a single indictment of 40 counts. The main charge is conspiracy to commit felonies by corrupting the election by violation of the primary law and the registration laws and by bribery and blackmail. False registration and illegal voting is charged.

Other counts allege that primary and election board permitted destruction of ballots for the purpose of substituting other ballots; that primary poll clerks marked ballots in a manner different from that required by the voter; that money was used in influencing electors; that policemen were permitted to stand within 50 feet of the polls "for improper purposes"; "that repeaters were imported from outside the city; that election officials failed in their duty of having voting machines in proper order and that voting machines were tampered with."

Thomas Taggart was the first of the indicted men to appear at the Sheriff's office to acknowledge service in the case. He was closely followed by Mayor Bell. Both were released on per-

GIRL WALKS 95 MILES ON HOME BOUND JOURNEY

Boa Motley Charged With Violating White Slave Act—Miss Vinnie Batchelor Respects and Returns Home

How she walked ninety-five miles on the return trip to her father's home, after she had expected money and luxuries from the man with whom she had eloped, was the unusual story told United States Commissioner C. S. Tutwiler today by Miss Vinnie Batchelor, of Coffee Springs, at the preliminary hearing of Boa Motley, charged with violating the Mann White Slave Act.

The evidence showed that Motley, a married man, left his home to go to Plant City, Fla., with the little country girl, with whom he was evidently infatuated.

The girl told how the man had made love to her, telling her that she would have plenty of money to spend and would not have to work, if she would go with him. The girl listened, according to her testimony, and ran away from home with Motley.

After a few days sojourning near Plant City, Fla., the girl told how she realized that she had done wrong, and that she wanted to return to her home, which she did, with the consent of Motley, who accompanied her as far as Geneva.

Commissioner Tutwiler asked personal bonds of $5,000 each.

"I don't know anything about it, except what I have seen in the newspapers," said Mr. Taggart when asked for a statement. He declined to discuss the case further.

New York, June 23.—Fifty witnesses summoned in behalf of Harry K. Thaw in his effort to prove that he is not insane, and is entitled to be set free from Matteawan asylum were ready to testify in his sanity trial beginning today before Supreme court Justice Hendrick and a jury.

This was Thaw's fourth attempt to obtain his freedom by habeas corpus writ, but the first instance in which his plea has been heard by a jury. Justice Hendrick, however, pointed out that the jury was an advisory body and not a trial jury.

"If they come to one conclusion while I reach another, I shall not be bound by their findings," he added.

Thaw was so confident of success that he was planning to attend the Panama-Pacific Exposition after the trial.

Frank Cook and Alfred L. Becker, representing the State Attorney General, who, with a representative of the District Attorney's office, were promoters, were reported to be anxious to find Evelyn Nesbit Thaw to call her as a witness.

Dr. Raymond Kibb, Superintendent of Matteawan asylum, and Dr. Charles MacDonald, an alienist, were prospective witnesses against Thaw.

Miss Batchelor, how far walked on the return trip. "About ninety-five miles," said the girl, in a very matter of fact tone of voice.

Charles Batchelor, father of the girl, said that when she reached home her feet were blistered, and that she was apparently very hungry.

Witnesses were introduced by the government to show that the defendant paid for the transportation of the girl from one place to another.

The father of Boa Motley is expected to reach Dothan this afternoon for the purpose of arranging bond for his son.

SAND STORM DOES DAMAGE

As the result of a severe sand storm that swept this section last night about 12 o'clock, all the telephone lines out of Dothan are out of use today. A parapet wall at the Virginia-Carolina Chemical Company's plant was blown down, and other slight property damage was entailed.

The wind was accompanied by the heavy roaring of thunder, and intermittent flashes of lightning, and but very little rain fell.

SUMMARY OF WAR STATUS

Four more vessels have been sunk by submarines and in one case—the British steamer Caribbrook—thirteen men of the crew are unaccounted for. The Caribbrook, engaged in trans-Atlantic trade, was sunk by gunfire from a German submarine. A large Turkish steamer and two Turkish sailing vessels were torpedoed in the Black Sea by Russian submarines.

A press dispatch from Athens reports great activity of the Allied fleet at the Dardanelles, from which it is assumed a general attack on the straits is planned. Fighting on Gallipoli Peninsula is being carried on vigorously, with offensive movements on the part of both the Turks and Allies, but neither side has been able to break the deadlock. The Turks made a timely attack last Wednesday, but are said at headquarters to have been repulsed, 100 men being captured.

Advices from Austria-Hungary centers in Galicia attribute the recent successes of the Russian German forces to their superiority in artillery. The fall of Lemberg is expected in a day or two. An official statement from a Hungarian press agency declares the Russian withdrawal from the Grodok Lake, west of Lemberg. On the Danube it is said the Austrians were driven back from two villages and heavy losses, and on the possible day of the front they have made no further progress.

The battle of Flers, on the Western front, still is in progress. The American offensive is directed at repulsing the drive the Italians are making. An official Rome message says their attempt failed. Elsewhere along the Italian front, important movements are occurring, with some gains claimed by the Italians.

There's no harm in asking if it's too hot for you, is there?

Nothing rare about these June days, they are burned up.

"Bryan to speak again," says a headline. Again or yet?

Roosters seem to crow earlier on Sundays and holidays when you want to sleep late.

Lots of Georgia people believe that the love of money is also the root of some pardons.

The unsettled condition of affairs is used by some as an excuse for not settling.

A paper calls him Slayton. He stayed low and order in the Frank case.

Have you a little hot time trying to sleep in your home these nights?

Some folks enjoy their religious prejudices almost as much as others enjoy rheumatism.

The country is full of folks who knew the governor would commute Frank's sentence.

Another variety of optimism is the fellow living on a little lot in town who believes he can make money raising chickens.

The Colonel has observed that the democratic party is split. The split is hardly large enough to let the Colonel get in again, however.

How'd you like to be a member of a church that washes feet and have to perform that operation on some fellows you know?

If the jury that tried Frank was influenced by the mob spirit in Atlanta at the time of the trial why was it they could not get one of them to sign a petition for clemency two years after wards?

Friends of Mrs. J. L. Vaughn will be pleased to learn of her improvement after a serious operation at a local infirmary.

Commutation in the Frank Case.

Savannah News.
 Governor Minton's review of the Frank case is convincing that he had sufficient doubt as to the guilt of Frank to justify him in commuting his sentence. And it is apparent that he gave the case very careful study. Some of the things he found in the testimony seemed to him inexplicable on the theory of his guilt. And there are three bits of evidence that came out after the trial, that might, in his opinion, have caused the jury to make a recommendation to mercy, thus giving the court the opportunity of making the sentence imprisonment for life. They were the letters written to the Carter woman by Conley in the jail, the Becker testimony indicating that the death notes were written in the cellar instead of Frank's office and the testimony of Dr. Harris raising the question whether the hairs found on the lathe in the metal room were those of Mary Phagan. And in support of the doubt that he had was the doubt expressed by the trial judge and the questions that were raised on certain points by two judges of the State Supreme Court and by two justices of the Federal Supreme Court.

The judge of the trial court had no doubt of course that the evidence fully warranted the verdict of guilty but he was possessed by a doubt whether some of the evidence was to be wholly relied on. The question raised by the two judges of the state Supreme Court had to do with the proceedings, that of the two justices of the Federal Supreme Court as to whether the atmosphere in the court room and around it wasn't so hostile to the defendant as to prejudice the jury against him.

Nevertheless it is pretty safe to say that the great majority of the people of this state and those who heard or made themselves familiar with the evidence believe that Frank is guilty. And the Governor no doubt recognizes this situation and it made it all the harder for him to extend clemency. He did what was unpopular in this state and popular outside of the state. It is doubtful, however if he gave a moment's thought to sentiment outside of the state, because he knew that it was largely manufactured, that very few outside of the state had read the testimony or knew anything of the merits of the case.

The Governor feels satisfied that in granting commutation he sustained the jury, the judge, and the appellate tribunals, and he is certain that he acted in accordance with his best judgment and his conscience. There can be no reasonable doubt that he wasn't swayed by any motive other than a desire to do absolute justice. If he had consulted his own interests from any point of view he would not have changed the sentence. He would have permitted the case to rest where the courts left it.

Feeling as so large a per cent of the people do that the sentence should have been carried into effect it is probable that the Governor's action will have some effect on the administration of justice in the state. For a time at least it will be harder to secure verdicts of guilty in murder cases and the pressure for clemency where the death penalty is imposed will be stronger.

Friends of Willie B. Louis will be regret to learn that he is ill of typhoid fever at his home on St. Andrews St.

Luke M'Luke Says

From the Cincinnati Enquirer.
 Anthony Comstock has resigned. Anthony was ringmaster of the Reform Circus when Billy Sunday was cutting his teeth on a sugar rag. Anthony was content with one ring and two bits admission, but later on the anti-saloon organizations added a menagerie to the circus and later on Billy Sunday added two more rings and the sawdust and the reserved seats and went after the big dough. Anthony wasn't a bad fellow, but oh, how he did hate curves and Sept. a. m.'s. Anthony saved many a married man a lot of trouble by heating friend wife to the picture in the altogether that friend husband was carrying around in his inside vest pocket.

Good advice is advice that tallies with what we had intended to do, anyway.

Some of the long-faced lads do a lot of kicking because the women wear transparent skirts. But you haven't noticed any of these men going around blind-folded on sunny days, have you?

Every old maid believes that a child should get a good spanking about 19 times a day.

Women are so anxious to worry over trifles that they go and marry them.

Our idea of a battle royal would be to herd all the knockers into one ring and make them fight it out.

It must be a great relief to a corn-fed girl when the powers that make the styles decide that it is no crime for a woman to have hips if she happens to be built that way.

A man will admit that he is liable to make mistakes when he happens to make one and then he insists that he is infallible.

Before they are married all she hears him talk about is his poor heart. After she gets him all she hears him talk about is his poor liver.

When your creditors are waiting for you to come across, you can always sit down and remind them that patience is a virtue.

Any man who has attended an amateur performance given for charity realizes that charity covers a multitude of sins.

Before he gets her life is all thrills. After he gets her life is all bills.

Woman is known as the weaker sex because she can't keep a secret unless she has the assistance of all her friends and acquaintances.

The weaker a man is the easier it is for him to break a promise.

You can always make a sure thing doubtful by betting on it. Some men go out hunting for trouble and others let their wives take in boarders.

Temperance 3,500 Years Ago.

(Christian Herald.)

There is in existence an Egyptian papyrus of the date of 3,500 years before the Christian era, which contains the following caution:

"My son, do not linger in the wine shop or drink too much wine. It cometh thee to utter words regarding thy neighbor which thou remember not. Then fallest upon the ground, thy limbs become weak as those of a child. One cometh to trade with thee and findest thee so. Then say they, 'Take away the fellow, for he is drunk.'"

This is believed to be the oldest temperance lecture in existence.

FEW FOLKS HAVE GRAY HAIR NOW

Druggist Says Ladies are Using Recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur.

Hair that loses its color and lustre, or when it fades, turns gray, dull and lifeless, is caused by a lack of sulphur in the hair. Our grandmother made up a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur to keep her locks dark and beautiful, and thousands of women who value that even color, that beautiful dark shade of hair, which is so attractive, use only this old-time recipe.

Nowadays we get this famous mixture by asking at any drug store for a 50 cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," which darkens the hair so naturally, so evenly, that nobody can possibly tell it has been applied. Besides, it takes off dandruff, stops scalp itching and falling hair. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also brings back the gloss and lustre and gives it an appearance of abundance.

ASKS ENGLAND TO ECONOMIZE

The Standard of Living at Present is Much Too High, Says Lloyd-George.

During the budget debate the chancellor of the exchequer returned to the point which he made with great force the other day—the vital necessity that the people of this country should put by their savings for the demands which will be made upon them later.

Hundreds of millions will be wanted to finance the war. There is no chance of getting enough revenue by merely taxing the rich. The nation's savings will be indispensable for the coming loans. Saving, therefore, is not a question of meanness but of patriotism, and the time has come for a return to the old system of simple living. Better face it at once, said the chancellor. The standard has been steadily going up. It will have to come down.

"Plain living and high thinking are no more," wrote Wordsworth in 1802 in a famous sonnet. Mr. Lloyd-George said nothing of high thinking, but he earnestly begged the nation to be wise in time, to return to plain living, to realize that the glittering prosperity of the moment was purely artificial, and to be sure that a period of collapse would most certainly and inevitably come.—London Telegraph.

BEWARE THAT POWDER PUFF!

It May Give You Lumbago, Appendicitis, or the Pile, Says a Philadelphia Physician.

More trouble in store for the summer girl! They've made her the butt of all sorts of jokes, patrolled the beach and park with cops, regulated the size and style of her bathing suit—and now she mustn't borrow a powder puff.

Doctor Ziegler, of the department of health and charities, says so. It's insanitary and might spread all sorts of diseases, including lumbago, appendicitis and pile. Inasmuch as the average summer girl would rather have all three of these ailments than a shiny nose, the advice probably will go unheeded.

Nevertheless, Doctor Ziegler places the borrowed powder puff with the common drinking cup, the common towel and the common bathtub in the category of "summer hotel evils to be avoided." He treats of them in a bulletin to vacationists about to leave the city.—Philadelphia North American.

AN ELABORATE SYSTEM.

"You're managing to wake up earlier this morning."
"Yes, I've just bought a parrot."
"Instead of an alarm clock?"
"I already had an alarm clock, but I got so I didn't pay any attention to it. Now I hang the parrot's cage in my room, and put the alarm clock under it. When the alarm goes off it startles the parrot and what that bird says would wake anybody up."

JUDGED BY SOME PASSENGERS.

"Step lively, please," said the conductor.
"Say, what do you think this is?" asked the grumpy person. "A tango parlor?"
"No," answered the conductor briefly, "but there are times when I think it must be a cattle car."

PRETENSIONS.

"Doctor Bragg has been telling of some swell patients he has had lately."
"I know. They're a family down with the mumps."

PHYSICIAN'S FRIEND.

The Lady—Are you fond of lobster salad, doctor?
Doctor—No, I'm not fond of it, but I'm very grateful to it.—Life.

IT ALWAYS IS.

Sympathizing Friend—Didn't you find it hard to lose all your money?
Hardup—No; easiest thing in the world.—Town Topics.

MORE NOVELTY.

Wedding Guest—The bride is of old Puritan stock, I understand?
Second Wedding Guest—Puritanism? What's that?
Wedding Guest—It's a delight.

They Tell us it was Hot Yesterday

In fact we heard numerous persons dilating on the extreme warmth when they entered the sanatorium. We are willing to believe that it was hot, but we know one thing—it was not hot here. We think that a meat shop should be kept cool in the summer and we put our thoughts into the action, as those big fans will testify. Our meat stays in the refrigerator and while you are in the shop you stay in the midst of the coolest and most refreshing breezes. Yes, we like to eat our own horn; but you see it isn't all hot air.

Annual Summer Clearance Sale

Begins Thursday, June 24th and continues two weeks. Dothan's Best Store is Dothan's only one price store. Our statements are taken at face value. Our price quotations do not have to be discounted like those of stores who have a different price for every different customer. We understate, always, rather than overstate. We give the same treatment, service, and price to everybody alike. Our store is a safe store to trade in. Our every day prices are as low as like goods can be bought in any store anywhere, and lower than can be found in most stores. Our styles are always absolutely correct. We invite comparison with the best city stores. If a style is good for New York, we think it none too good for Dothan. We carry better goods than most stores of this section, but charge no more for them. Our goods are always worth what we ask for them; during our Clearance Sale our bargains are simply wonderful. The goods described and quoted here are only a few selected from the many.

FOY & WILLIAMS ANNUAL SUMMER CLEARANCE SALE BEGINS THURSDAY JUNE 24

This house adopted several years ago the plan of clearing out its stock of all odds and ends, and all surplus merchandise before the close of each season in time for their customers to benefit by their low offerings.

This store is a great believer in honesty advertising and has steadfastly practiced the belief that no business house should publish an advertisement that the management could not make an affidavit as to its truthfulness.

In an interview with the manager, he referred to the success of the world's greatest merchant, John Wanamaker, and said, "John Wanamaker himself attributed his success to the rigid adherence to his one price policy—his golden rule—treatment to everybody alike.

PLAN TO ALTER OLD CITY HALL

City Engineer George E. Holter is busy today drawing plans for contemplated changes to be made at the old city hall building, which it is understood, will undergo some alterations, although the City Council has not passed on the project.

The fireman have been using the rear of the building on the second floor, for sleeping quarters, and they will probably be removed to the front in that part of the building at present used as the City Clerk's office and Mayor's court. The Mayor's court will be in the rear of the building. The first floor will contain cells and the fire apparatus.

The question of making the alteration or the old building will probably come up before the City Council soon, to be definitely decided upon.

HAD A REMARKABLE ESCAPE

Army Aviator Fell a Mile and Then Succeeded in Controlling
His Machine.

The official "eyewitness" account of fighting near Ypres, Belgium, gives the following remarkable account of an army aviator's escape from death:

"One of our airmen had a thrilling experience. He was alone in a single-seated aeroplane in pursuit of a German machine. While trying to reload his machine gun he lost control of the steering gear and the aeroplane turned upside down. The belt around his waist happened to be loose, and the jerk of the turn almost threw him out of the machine, but he saved himself by clutching the rear center strut, the belt slipping down around his legs. While he hung, head downward, making desperate efforts to disengage his legs, the aeroplane fell from a height of 8,000 feet to about 3,000, spinning round and round like a falling leaf.

"At last he managed to free his legs and reach the control lever with his feet. He then succeeded in righting the machine, which turned slowly over, completely looping the loop, whereupon he slid back to his seat. This constitutes a record even in a service where hairbreadth escapes are of daily occurrence."

Vandalia Proved That She Was Immune From Disposition That Had Been Threatened.

For the thirty-seventh time Mrs. Willis fired her cook.

"And mind, Vandalia," she warned her, "this is the last time I shall discharge you. I'm tired of giving you your walking papers and then discovering that you have failed to walk. If I find you here tomorrow morning, I warn you I shall resort to force."

The next morning she was still messing up the kitchen. Mrs. Willis lost no time. That girl had to be fired. Summoning the town's entire force of firemen, she led them to the kitchen.

"Now, Vandalia," she said triumphantly, "will you leave peacefully or shall I be compelled to instruct these men to fire you?"

"Miss Willis," replied Vandalia firmly, "Ah simply can't be fired."

"And why not, pray?" inquired Mrs. Willis.

"Cause," chuckled Vandalia, "cause Ah'm a fireless cooker!"

And Mrs. Willis, who had her position as president of the Ladies' Comedy club to maintain, could do nothing but swallow her mortification and leave Vandalia in possession. —Louisville Times.

HIS ONLY COMMENT.

"So you told your boss about my two-hour public speech, did you?" said the cadragette.

"I did," answered the meek and lowly husband.

"And what did he say?" she queried.

"He said," replied the mere man, "that he wished his wife would make her two-hour speeches to the public instead of to him privately."

HIGH FINANCE.

"Economy isn't the road to wealth," remarked the proverbial smasher.

"But I thought the way to get rich was to make dollars go farther," remarked the dense person.

"Then you are entitled to another think," replied the party of the first part. "The secret of acquiring wealth is to make them come faster."

ADVICE TO THE POINT.

"I don't know that I like that repair man," remarked Mr. Chuggins, thoughtfully.

"Doesn't he do his work well?"

"Oh, yes. It's the style of his conversation I object to. I asked him what I could do to keep my car from getting out of order so often, and he said, 'Hire a regular chauffeur.'"

You Can Save Time, Labor and Money by Baling Your Hay

There is always a considerable amount of waste when loose hay is dragged around the barn or feed lot. Baled hay can be more easily and economically handled than loose hay. Baled hay requires only one-fifth the space required to store loose hay. It is easily stacked or loaded in cars for shipment to the best market.

IHC Pull Power Presses will bale more hay with less strain on the horses than any other press made.

The pull power principle,
The compound leverage,
The toggle joint plunger,
And the low step-over are some of the features which make IHC Pull Power Presses the most efficient on the market.
